

Window World Maintains Authority as Largest Home Improvement Contractor

Company Earns Top Spot on Qualified Remodeler's Top 500 List for 12th Consecutive Year

N. WILKESBORO, N.C. (August 30, 2018) – Window World®, America's largest replacement window and exterior remodeling company, was ranked the number one replacement and home improvement contractor in Qualified Remodeler's Top 500 list. This is the 12th consecutive year Window World claimed the highest ranking on the high-profile list.

Qualified Remodeler's Top 500 list is an annual ranking of the nation's largest remodeling firms based on revenue. Now in its 40th year, the study considers the total number and types of jobs carried out by each business. Window World dominated every category, more than tripling the gross sales revenue of its closest competitor.

"Our revenue demonstrates how satisfied Window World's customers are with their window replacements and other home improvement projects," says Window World Chairman and CEO Tammy Whitworth. "Since we continuously meet and exceed our clients' expectations, they recommend Window World to their friends and neighbors. Earning the number one ranking on Qualified Remodeler's Top 500 list demonstrates Window World's popularity and success."

Maintaining its authority at the top of Qualified Remodeler's Top 500 list is the latest accomplishment for Window World. The company earned the J.D. Power Award for ranking highest in the Retail segment of the 2018 Windows and Patio Doors Satisfaction Study. Window World's windows recently earned the Good Housekeeping Seal for the 11th consecutive year. REMODELING magazine also ranked Window World the No. 1 Replacement Contractor in its 2018 REMODELING 550 list for the 10th consecutive year.
